Te Papa Presents

THE TREATY DEBATES series 2010

EVOLUTION AND NOT REVOLUTION

Leading Treaty of Waitangi scholar Dr Claudia Orange chairs an exciting series of thought-provoking debates on the last 30-40 years of Māori activism.

Professor Paul Spoonley

Dr Ranginui Walker

Professor Mason Durie

Colin James

Thursday 28 January

The two contributors to this debate will be Professor Paul Spoonley and political commentator Doctor Ranginui Walker. Professor Spoonley considers reaction over the last 30-40 years to growing Maori activism, as seen through the lens of a key protagonist – Doctor Ranginui Walker – who will respond.

Thursday 4 February

The two contributors to this debate will be Professor Mason Durie and political commentator Colin James.

6.30pm–7.45pm

Soundings Theatre, Level 2

Free entry

The Treaty debates are organised by Te Papa in partnership with the New Zealand Centre for Public Law at Victoria University of Wellington.

This year's Treaty Debates will be video recorded and available on Te Papa's website. Latecomers will not be admitted as Radio New Zealand National will be recording the debates.
